before the Railway by nearly 2500. The number at Chunnapalam for the two years in question. is nearly the same as that before the Railway, while which the number at Closepet is less and at Bidadi much more.

4. ... It is evident from the statement that the Chattram at Bidadi is the most useful of the three, and has helped the largest number of poor people.

5 Allowing any inaccuracies in the figures, there is no question that the Railway has not reduced the number of poor travellers that almost daily resort to these places of public charity, which it is highly desirable to maintain as heretofore. Poor people still continue to travel on foot, not only for their inability to pay the Railway fares, but also for the benefit they derive at these Chattrums on one of the most important main roads.

6. To abolish any of these ancient institutions, will work undoubtedly a great hardship on poor people travelling on the road to and fro' the two principal cities of Mysore. The larger Chattrams in Bangalore and Mysore are good in their own way, but they cannot in any way meet the requirements of poor people travelling between them by stages, for whose benefit these minor institutions have long been established.

7. The Chief Secretary's No. 66/3 of the 1st April last together with the Vernacular correspondence is here-with respectfully returned.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, (General),—dated 8th August 1888.

CIRCULAR.

No. 3427-34—Cir. 103. dated 8th August 1888.

Order.—In Proceedings No. 3917—166, dated 9th August 1886, the following order was passed:—

"The Dewan desires it to be pointed out that the issue of monthly supplies to "Nemidars is not a proper appropriation of the funds set apart for chattrams. "Though it is undesirable to stop such supplies to the Nemidars suddenly, yet on "their death, the supplies should never be continued to their heirs. No name should "be newly added to the list of Nemidars".

2. The Dewan has again given his best consideration to the subject and has arrived at the conclusion that the above rule is a sound one and should always be adhered to.

3. An exception to it may however be made in the case of any person (of the caste for whose benefit the chattram or other charity is founded), if the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that (a) such person is without any means of support whatsoever and (b) is incapable of earning a livelihood by reason of extreme old age, blindness, lameness, or some such physical disability. Any allowance granted to such persons should as far as possible be met from the monthly savings of the institution after all legitimate demands for feeding in the ordinary course have been met. An order requiring such persons to be fed permanently at a chattram, would often test allegations of poverty brought forward, but whether or not such a test should be resorted to is a matter which the Dewan would leave to the Deputy Commissioner's discretion.

4. The reduction of the number of Nemidars owing to lapses under the Orders No. 3917—166, dated 9th August 1886, will, it is hoped, place sufficient funds at the disposal of the various institutions not only to carry out their original object but also to afford help to deserving objects of charity referred to in para 3 above. Where this is not the case, the Deputy Commissioner must take steps to weed the list of Nemidars of all persons not really in need of help, and stopping their allowances after giving them sufficient previous notice of, say, 3 or 6 months.
